The aim of every yearbook staff is to produce a book which will thrill the heart of each student as the volume is first opened and then grow in importance as the years pass by. It is our desire to present an open window through which the panorama of newly acquired friendships, the myriad social and athletic events enjoyed, and the spiritual growth attained is laid out before us to view in years to come. We sincerely hope we have fulfilled our aim.

THE 1951 ECHOES STAFF

MARVIN L. TUTTLE, Editor

For his spiritual vitality
on the campus

For his unselfish devotion
to the college

CHARLES KISSELL

We sincerely dedicate . . .

"Charlie" Kissell was born in 1892 in the central part of Russia. Being of Lithuanian nationality, he was not privileged to get much of an education, because in his day, and in that country, education was not considered important.

When he was fifteen, his only sister, who was then living in the United States, sent him a ticket to come to America. The intrigue which centered around his being smuggled out of the country in a load of hay is only one of the many interesting incidents of his life.

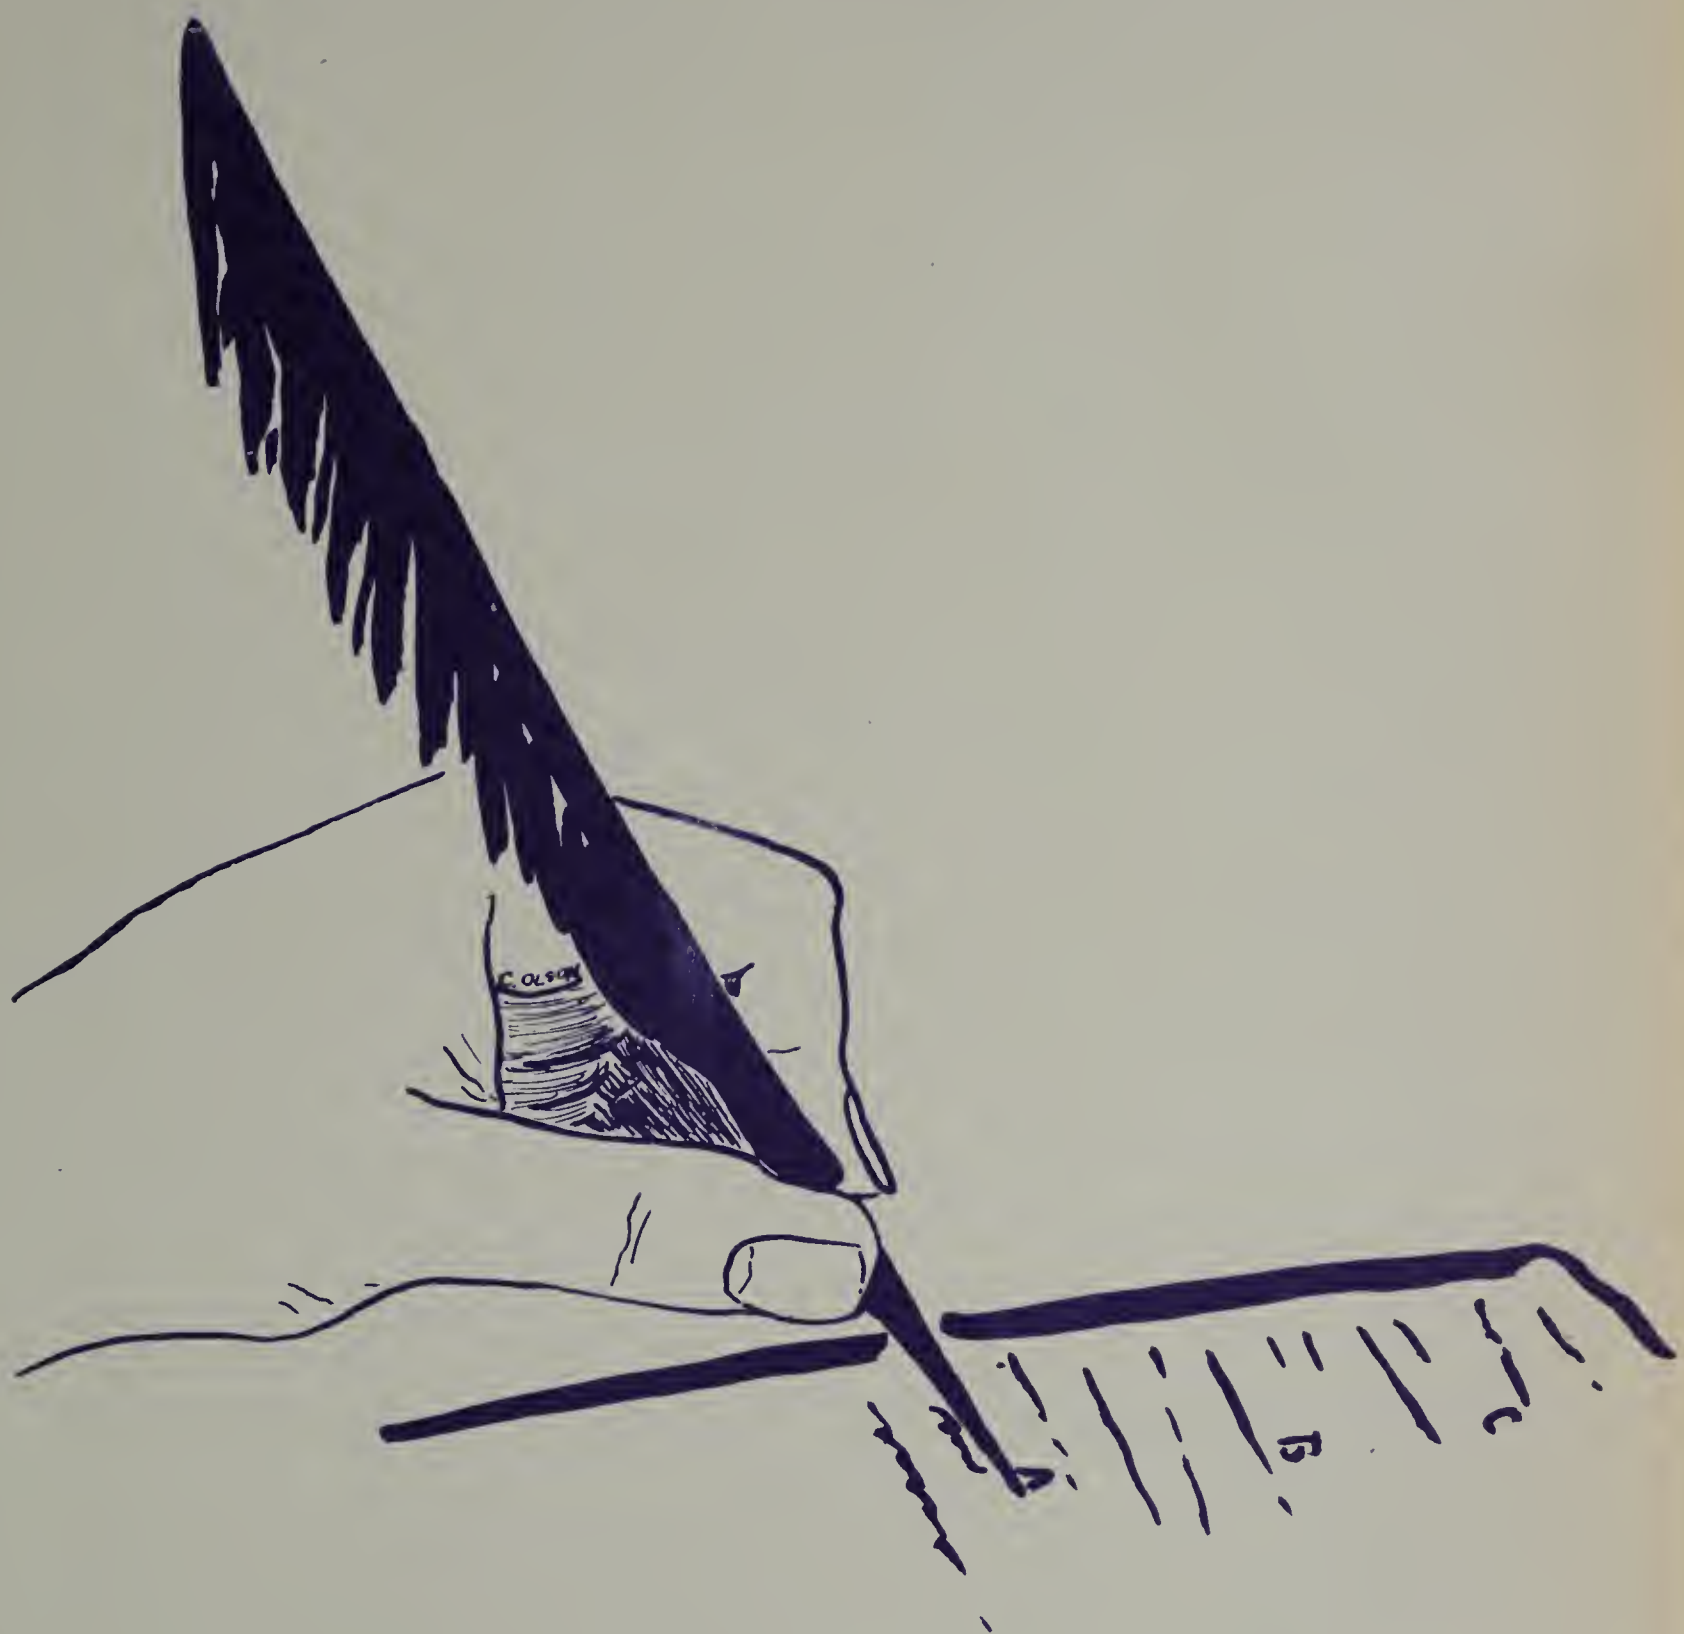

After coming to this country, he settled in Scranton, Pennsylvania, and then migrated to Illinois. The Great Lakes offered many possibilities for a young adventurous fellow, so Charlie went to work on the boats. Later he worked in an automobile factory in Detroit, a machine shop in Cincinnati, and a mine in Jasper, Alabama.

In 1913 he was married. Both of his daughters are still living, one in Anderson, and one in the South.

Anderson College received him in 1924, and he has lived here ever since. Music is his special interest, as well as the Ministerial Fellowship. Charlie still takes lessons from an instructor in town.

For his 27 years of faithful service, it gives us, the members of the 1951 Echoes staff, great pleasure to dedicate this yearbook to him.

Regularly throughout the school year the students of Anderson College have their dorm prayer meetings. We feel that if we are to accomplish anything tomorrow, we must build our foundation today.

Each Monday evening the girls of Morrison Hall and North Hall may be found winding their ways to the places of prayer. The prayer meetings help create a feeling of oneness among the girls of Anderson College.

TRIAD CLUB

A threefold purpose, illustrated by the triangular emblem, is embodied in the Triad Club. The three points pertain to religious, academic, and social activities. Organized in the spring of 1948, it has rapidly assumed one of the leading roles in directing student activities on the campus.

An original all-school amateur hour and morning prayer meetings were contributions made to campus life by the Triad Club. Outside this realm, the club also has contributed directly to the church-at-large, by supplying it with outstanding youth leaders in the fields of religion, athletics, and academics.

Jack Cousins, president of the club, was assisted by Ralph Hoar, vice-president; Kenneth Walker, secretary; and Robert Hamel, treasurer. Mr. Robert Ramsay is the faculty adviser.

SACHEM CLUB

JOHN CHERNEY
President

"GOD FIRST, OTHERS SECOND, SELF LAST," the Sachem Club motto, keynotes the prominent successes the club has achieved during the past year. Consisting of some of the most active members in student groups on the campus, this group has forged ahead to previously unknown heights in the fields of religious and academic freedom.

Demonstrating their leadership, the Sachems awarded their annual scholarship to a worthy present student. Church worship services were also conducted regularly by the members.

President of the Sachem Club this year was John Cherney. Other officers were: Lewis D'Alessio, vice-president; Bob Deal, secretary; and Darl Beckham, treasurer. Dr. John Buehler is the faculty adviser.

PEP CLUB

The Pep Club and school spirit are considered synonymous words around Anderson College. The object of this women's organization is to promote Christian personality, education, and progress. Being the oldest social club on the campus, the Pepsters can boast of many outstanding alumni who are serving in nearly every section of the universe.

This year the Pep schedule included an all-school skating party and a Christmas musical, "Land of Jingle Bells." An added attraction of the club is an all-girl choir, which enriches many services and meetings with their inspirational singing.

At the head of Pep Club activities this year was Donna Carpenter. Assisting her were Yvonne Fortner, vice-president; Colleen Morgan, secretary; and Marian Egly, treasurer. The faculty adviser is Mrs. Marie Mayo.

IV-C CLUB

PAUL O'NEILL
President

Four C's—Church, College, Country, and Club—tell the story of the IV-C Club. Embodied in the club emblem are the Christian cross, the college seal, and the nation's shield. The youngest club to appear on the campus, this group was organized in the spring of 1949.

As its all-school event it brought the Fort Custer basketball team to the campus, with ex-Raven athlete Johnny Wilson. The IV-C's have received special distinction in the field of competitive athletics, having won the interclub basketball championship for the second straight year.

Virgil Trick headed the club as its president the first semester and Paul O'Neill reigned the second semester. Other officers include Tom Cockerham, vice-president; Norman Velie, secretary; and Charles Harris, treasurer. Mr. Oliver Oesch is the faculty adviser.

CIHU CLUB

"Can I Help You?" This friendly greeting is often heard on the campus and is characteristic of the creed of the Cihus. This club is one of the most active groups on the campus and boasts many leaders among its numbers.

Sponsoring the Fall skating party, the Cihus also sponsored an all-school event in the Spring. They were co-sponsors of the all-school picnic on Memorial Day.

President of the Cihu clan this year was Bonnie Kearns. Co-officers were Ruth McKinney, vice-president, Benarda Jewitt, secretary, Alma Hause, treasurer. Miss Florence Eggert is the faculty adviser.

CAMARADA CLUB

JEAN RATZLAFF
President

The Camarada Club gets its name from a Spanish word meaning "comrade." This idea is embodied in its creed which is friendship and service through daily Christian living.

The Camaradas were active in the early morning prayer meetings held in the school and sponsored an all-school caroling party during the Yuletide season. A comic opera, "The Mikado," was presented by the club in the Spring.

Jean Ratzlaff served as president for the club and other officers were Norma Butgereit, vice-president; Phyllis Bard, secretary; Virginia Titley, treasurer. Miss Jean Lindenschmidt is the faculty adviser.

BOOSTER CLUB

The Booster Club's purpose is designated by its name. This club was organized in October, 1936, for the purpose of boosting general functions and especially athletic activities. The emblem is built around a Christian cross and a fleur-de-lis.

A male chorus, composed of Boosters, presented "30 Guys—And a Gal Go West," as the all-school contribution. The Boosters also sponsored an all-night prayer vigil during the Spring Religious Emphasis Week. State Stunt Night was under Booster auspices.

Heading the club this year as president was Paul Clausen. Other officers include Charles Whitmill, vice-president; Dwight Dye, secretary; Wilbur Hatch, treasurer. Mr. Val Clear is the faculty adviser.

THE ANDERSONIAN

Working together is what it takes to be successful in any field of life, and in preparing The Andersonian it takes just that. With the guidance of Billy Joe Thomas and his staff, it has been successful. After Billy Joe resigned in late March, a Board of Editors was appointed, composed of five page editors: Jane Bradford, Dan Harman, Bill Wright, Carl Williams, and Cathy Bailey. These people have gone on with the work just as it was done before. The Andersonian, published weekly, is always welcomed by the students. One reason for this is that they never know what to expect, but they always find it to be of interest. Thanks to a fine staff for the advance and success it has made this year.

ECHOES

Co-operation is the key to success for all projects undertaken by a group of students, and it was especially important in the production of the 1951 Echoes. Without the earnest and sincere effort of every member, and the capable leadership of our faithful adviser, W. Shirell Fox, it would have been an impossibility to produce this year's annual. The staff has tried to use its most creative talents to make this Echoes one of which students will be justly proud, and one which will bring back pleasant memories of this year at Anderson College.

In addition to the regular staff, the Editor would like to give special recognition to Cathy Bailey, Dan Jernigan, and Billie Jo Whitaker, who worked many long, strenuous hours so that the yearbook might be the success it is.

The Honor Society of Anderson College, organized as a model chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, first appeared in 1947 to give special recognition to students who excel in academic fields. The purpose of the Anderson College Honor Society is threefold: to promote (1) regard for scholarship and the principles of integrity on which scholarship depends, (2) discriminating cultural interest and appreciations, and (3) an awareness of significant events and movements of the age in which we live.

ALPHA PSI OMEGA

The highest recognition the amateur thespian can receive is to be admitted to Alpha Psi Omega, national honorary dramatic society. Admission is open only to those students who have satisfactory scholarship plus participation in both the acting and production phases of college dramatics. The Anderson College chapter, the Lambda Theta cast, was organized in the Spring of 1948.

Dedicated to encourage fellowship among English faculty and students studying in that field, the Iota Epsilon Chapter of the national professional English honorary society, Sigma Tau Delta, has supplied numerous stimuli for the student toward helping him understand and appreciate literature to a greater extent. Membership is granted to students after they have completed the requirements of the national office, including attainment in scholarship, interest and achievement in literature, and creative endeavor.

FOUR YEAR VETERANS

The backbone of the Anderson College football team, since inauguration of the game on the campus in 1947, graduates this year. The five men upon whom Coach Kerr has depended to a great extent are: Halfback Jim Macholtz, St. Joseph, Mich; Quarterback Carter Byfield, Indianapolis; Tackle Dante Schiavone and Guard Bill Ameredes, both of Weirton, W.Va.; and Guard Bill Sebree, Indianapolis.

Macholtz and Ameredes, along with teammate Tom Redmond, made additional local grid history this year by being chosen for the third straight year on the Hoosier Conference All-Star team.

Coach Kerr will have to look long and hard before he finds replacements for this quintet.

All these are yours

YOURS IS COMPETITIVENESS . . .

You have learned to get ahead by your own honest endeavors, to accept setbacks but to strive all the harder to attain your goal.

YOURS IS SPORTSMANSHIP . . .

You have learned to play the game hard, and to accept defeat and victory in a gracious manner.

YOURS IS TOLERANCE . . .

You have learned to respect the opinions of others, no matter what their race, color, or creed.

YOURS IS INTELLIGENCE . . .

You have learned to apply yourself, to overcome problems by the simple process of reasoning.

Competition is the meat of the great American pie; Sportsmanship is the seasoning. Tolerance is the crust, and Intelligence is the know-how in the making of the pie. In these times of hatred and oppression, America must have men and women endowed with these four characteristics, and all these are yours.

PRINTING

seems a faraway cry from the methods used when Johann Gutenberg first devised versatility by the use of his crude movable types. Those basic methods, now universally adopted, and standing a monument to his memory, have never changed. We Americans, to whom PRINTING has become such an integral part of our daily existence, use it in our business, for educational advancement, and entertainment in every walk of life. * * * Be it the daily newspaper, billboard, sky-writing or the ether-borne wave, still to PRINTING do we concede the sphere of endurance and permanency in the transmitting and recording of our thoughts.

SO WITH THIS COLLEGE ANNUAL . . . the pictures, slogans, club names, and advertisements of contributing firms . . . how they call you back every time you open the covers. We at Commercial Service sincerely wish for you, students of A.C.T.S., many, many occasions of happy reminiscence as you browse through the pages of '51 ECHOES.
